Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Ada Linngren received her teaching certificate from Northern State College in 1925 and devoted the next fifty-six years to furthering the education of young South Dakotans. She also furthered her own education, and in 1970 she graduated from Black Hills State College with a four-year degree; and,

WHEREAS, Ada Linngren's influence on countless first, second, third and fourth graders can be seen especially in the Strandburg community, where she spent forty-four years before moving to the Corona community for an additional twelve; and,

WHEREAS, Nellie Moe graduated from the University of Minnesota in 1913, and she spent the next fifty-four years putting her education to good use, educating hundreds of young South Dakotans in a variety of grades and subjects; and,

WHEREAS, Nellie Moe not only educated our young in the basics of a sound education, she also served as Strandburg High School Principal, helping other teachers shape the students she did not personally teach; and,

WHEREAS, Both Miss Linngren and Miss Moe, ever active in community and church affairs, spent their Sundays doing what they did best--teaching--in Sunday School; and,

WHEREAS, The Strandburg Alumni Association is holding an open house on Sunday, April 8, in honor of these two remarkable, memorable, dedicated and beloved educators:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 8, 1984, as in South Dakota, and I join Miss Linngren's and Miss Moe's many friends, relatives, and former pupils in thanking them for the educations they gave to so many in their collective one hundred and ten years of teaching.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-eighth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-four
